

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sherrill Ann Dryden was born to Robert and Alta Dryden on February 18, 1943, in Hot Springs, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Sherrill spent her childhood on a ranch 1 mile east of Oelrichs where she attended school and was a member of the school band, choir, pep club, 4-H, and the Oelrichs Methodist Church. She graduated with the Class of 1961; and,

Whereas, Sherrill attended National School of Business in Rapid City, graduating in 1962 and began working as a clerk in the Fall River County Auditor's Office from 1963 to 1966. She then worked for the Commissioner of School and Public Lands in Pierre until 1971; and,

Whereas, Sherrill returned to be appointed County Auditor for Fall River and Shannon Counties in January of 1974, and has continued in that position for 31 years; and,

Whereas, Sherrill has worked effectively with dozens of county commissioners, and has been a respected county official who will be dearly missed upon her retirement; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 15, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join her family and many friends in wishing her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

SHERILL A. DRYDEN DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
